Dear Mr. Land:

Thank you very much for your kind letter of 30 January inviting me to attend the breakfast on 21 February.

As much as I would like to be with your group on this occasion, I must regretfully decline your invitation as I plan to be out of the city on this date. Your thoughtfulness in inviting me again to these traditional breakfasts is indeed appreciated.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles

TWO HUNDRED ONE EAST ARMOUR BLVD.
KANSAS CITY II, MO.

My dear Mr. Dulles:

For many years during the Annual Conference of Grand Masters of Masons of North America, I have been giving traditional breakfasts in honor of the President. This year it is doubtful that Mr. Eisenhower can be with us. I am therefore, taking the opportunity of honoring the Vice President, Justices of the Supreme Court, members of the Cabinet, as well as leaders in the Congress and Administration. It would afford us real pleasure to have you present.

The fourteenth traditional breakfast this year will be on Friday morning, February twenty-first, at 8:00 a.m., in the Presidential Room of the Hotel Statler, Washington, D. C. Nearly five hundred Masonic leaders of this Continent will be gathering in Washington at that time, and I would like particularly to have these men meet you. It will be very informal and I would enjoy having you as one of my guests.

I hope that you will let me know as early as possible if you will be present.

With word of deep personal regard and best wishes, I am

Cordially,

Frank S. Land
